

Remember, Remember the 11th of November

Remember, remember the 11th of November
when the killing ceased,
Buy a poppy wear it with pride,
So the soldiers' souls will never be forgotten.
Remember, remember the 11th of November.

In those hell-like trenches, death bloomed,
The brutal fight for our country not yet, doomed.
Remember the soldiers and their sacrifice,
So, a hundred years on we have a better life.
